Dear Ms. Xie:

On July 29, 2005 I sent you a letter regarding the appeal you filed on May 5, 2004 alleging gross abuse of discretion in the promotion and salary determination of another employee. We had also written you last February asking you to either confirm or deny your intention to continue your appeal. Subsequent to this filing, we learned that you had left State employment. To date we have not heard from you.

I am again asking you to notify the Board, in writing, of your intent to continue or withdraw your appeal. If I do not hear from you by September 6, 2005 I shall advise the Board that you have abandoned your appeal and an Order of Dismissal will be issued.

You may contact me at (302) 739-6772 with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,
